

WKK in advance as the winner of the regular season in U15

The players of WKK Wroclaw in the U15 category managed to dominate all 3 tournaments in the regular season without losing a single match. The last time they did it was this weekend in Katowice, where they again won all their matches and in the overall table they are in 1st place with a balance of 13 - 0.

Five teams gathered for the tournament in Katowice, Poland, and all were dominated by the boys from WKK Wroclaw, who could not find a winner even on the third attempt.

The second place belongs to the BK VIVIDBOOKS Pardubice team, which lost only to the victorious Wroclaw in the last match of the tournament in a direct fight for the gold.

Bronze goes to HAKRO Merlins Crailsheim . The German team also had a good match against Pardubice, but lost it in the last quarter, which pushed them down to third place.

The home team UKS SP 27 Katowice finished just below the podium and the last without a win is Jížní Supi .
