

Inter Bratislava as the winner of The Finals U13

The first final tournament of this season was played by the boys in the youngest U13 category in Krakow, Poland, and the Slovakian team Inter Bratislava rejoiced at the overall triumph. He was able to handle all 4 of his matches without much difficulty and is happy about the overall triumph.

The six best teams after the regular season competed in the final tournament in Krakow, respectively the best five and their host club. In the end, he proved to be the dark horse of the tournament when he ran out for a somewhat unexpected bronze medal.

The participants were divided into two groups of three teams, from which the best two advanced to the semi-finals. The winner of the regular season WKK Wroclaw arrived at the final without several supports and this played a key role. First, on Friday, after a big drama, WKK lost by 3 points to the later finalists Válečníci Děčín. On Saturday, he also lost to the home team, leaving him with only the fight for 5th place.

In the second group, the third place was left for another Polish team ORLEN Akademia BM Stal, who in the end clearly had the upper hand over WKK in the battle for 5th place.

One of the main favorites BK Inter Bratislava, which did not hesitate even in the duel with the home team, and was looking forward to its opponent in the fight for the gold, advanced to the semi-finals. Even the second semi-final did not offer too much drama, and after the progress of Děčín, the spectators could look forward to the Czech-Slovak final.

On the contrary, a purely Polish fight brought a match for bronze between the home boys from Korona 1919 Krakow and Górnik Airteam Walbrzych. This duel brought great drama until the last seconds and in the end the players of the host club were one point happier.

The finals started better Válečníci Děčín, who led the entire first quarter, but from the second half the players BK Inter Bratislava began to have the upper hand, gradually increasing their lead to 30 points and finally finishing in peace for the overall triumph in this year's competition.
