

BA Nymburk wins the U14 tournament at home

Two mini-tables determine the order of the tenth tournament in the U14 category. Both the medal positions and the order of fourth to sixth place were decided by the mini-table of three teams. The calculation turned out best for the home team BA Nymburk, which wins the gold medals.

Something that has not happened yet, at least not this season. The medalists and other teams in the standings are decided by the scores from the mutual matches of the three teams. The results of the individual matches bring us to this situation.

The tournament started with a match between the home team Nymburk and the French team Akdemie Grand Est . Nymburk started the game well, enjoying a four-point lead at half-time. In the second half, the French team took the initiative and eventually won by a comfortable sixteen-point margin. The second match was played by the Polish team MKS Ósemka Skierniewice , who came to the tournament as favorites to win, as they had only lost once this season and their opponent was the Czech team BCM Orli Prostějov . Ósemka confirmed their role as favorites in this match, building a lead from the beginning, which eventually climbed to fifteen points. The last match of the first round was a duel between the Austrian academy BBLZ - Reach the Top and AK Orly Wrocław . The match was evenly matched throughout and gave the most indication of the further course of the tournament. In the end, the Austrian team BBLZ won a narrow three-point victory.

On Saturday, the most talked about match was the match between the home team BA Nymburk and MKS Ósemka Skierniewice . The match offered many emotions, unfortunately also negative ones, which the home team dealt with better and eventually won a big win by thirty-four points, which later turned out to be the decisive result for determining the ranking in the tournament.

Early Sunday morning, a game took place that was important for the medal positions. The main roles were played by the teams Akdemie Grand Est and MKS Ósemka Skierniewice . The first half was completely even and the players were nervous about the importance of the match. In the second half, the Polish favorite of the tournament turned on the higher gears and won by seven points. However, it could be said to be a Pyrrhic victory, since the heavy defeat by Nymburk and the loss of Nymburk to Grand Est condemned them to third place in the tournament. Nymburk still allowed themselves to gamble with their victory in the tournament in a duel with AK Orly Wrocław . The match that closed the tournament program was no walk in the park for Nymburk. They had to fight hard for every ball and Wrocław was a balanced opponent. In the end, Nymburk came out in control to win by nine points and win the gold medals.

Final tournament standings:

1. BA Nymburk (Czech Republic)
2. Akdemie Grand Est (France)
3. MKS Ósemka Skierniewice (Poland)
4. AK Orly Wrocław (Poland)
5. BCM Orli Prostějov (Czech Republic)
6. BBLZ - Reach the Top (Austria)
