

Jena as the winner of the second U19 tournament

The second and at the same time the last tournament in the U19 category took place just before Easter in Pardubice. In the end, only 4 teams participated, which in a head-to-head format means three duels for each.

The best form from Germany was brought by the players of Science City Jena , who managed to win all three duels. They played the closest match at the end of the tournament with the home team, when they won by 5 points.

The second place remains in the Czech Republic for the Sokol Pražský team, which accepted the invitation to participate in the tournament outside the competition.

The Slovak team Diawin Košice takes third place for one win from three matches.

The last place without the joy of victory was left to the organizing team BK VIVIDBOOKS Pardubice .

Final standings of the tournament:

1. Science City Jena (Germany)
2. Sokol Pražský (Czech Republic)
3. Diawin Košice (Slovakia)
4. BK VIVIDBOOKS Pardubice (Czech Republic)

Individual awards went to the following players:

MVP:

Raphael Falkenthal (Science City Jena)

All-star team:

Paul Schwabe (Science City Jena)

Ondřej Kahánek (Sokol Pražský)

Dan Střílka (Sokol Pražský)

Dmytro Sokolovskyi (Diawin Košice)

Tomáš Hřebík (BK VIVIDBOOKS Pardubice)

Top scorer of the tournament:

Raphael Falkenthal (Science City Jena) - 74 points (24.7 points per game)

2022/2023

On the website you will find all the results, including statistics, as well as a rich photo gallery.

Also visit the video section or our YouTube channel.

translated by

07/04/2023

author: Martin Šorf | language: cs