

The new season 2023/2024 starts

A record number of 62 teams from five countries will participate in this season in 4 categories. From October to April, you can look forward to 36 tournaments.

This year's 5th season will be a record in terms of the number of participants and tournaments. A total of 62 teams will be represented in 4 traditional categories for boys. Let's introduce the individual categories.

Boys U13

The youngest category is boys born in 2011 and younger. 6 teams from the Czech Republic, 5 from Poland and 2 from Slovakia will compete in 7 tournaments.

Boys U14

This category is for boys born in 2010 and younger and you can look forward to 9 tournaments and 18 teams. 5 units are from the Czech Republic, 6 from Poland, 4 from Slovakia and 3 from Germany.

Boys U15

The most numerous category this season will be boys born in 2009 and younger. 19 teams will play 10 tournaments in the regular season and there are 8 teams from the Czech Republic, 7 from Poland and 2 each from Slovakia and Germany

Boys U17

The oldest category this year are boys born in 2007 and younger. 6 tournaments are prepared for 12 teams, which are distributed among the individual states as evenly as possible. 3 teams from the Czech Republic, 3 from Poland, 3 from Slovakia, 2 from Germany and 1 from Austria will participate in the competition.

Individual teams can be found in the menu for each category.

The competition system does not change, i.e. each team will play 3 tournaments in the basic part and then the best 6 teams (if there is no organizer among them, then 5 + the organizer) will advance to the final tournament.

translated by Google

10/09/2023

author: Martin Šorf | language: cs