

Děčín dominated the opening tournament of the youngest category

The new season also started for the U13 boys, and the first tournament was hosted by Polish Zielona Góra. Only 5 teams took part in the first stop, and the Czech Warriors Děčín were the best, winning all their matches.

In two matches against Polish opponents, the boys from Děčín had to decide their victory only in the final quarter. On the other hand, they were in control of the other two matches from the opening part.

The final match of the tournament between SKM Zastal Zielona Góra and Górnik Airteam Walbrzych decided the silver. The newcomer won the competition by a ten-point difference, leaving only the bronze bar for the traditional participant and host of this tournament.

The second match on Sunday also determined the direct standings and two teams who were still waiting for a victory faced each other. In the end Sokol Pražský beat another local team and newcomer Korona 1919 Krakow .
