

Academy NH Ostrava wins the U17 tournament

Ostrava did not find a winner at the sixth tournament of the U17 category and takes home gold medals from Crailsheim, Germany. The tournament was unconventionally held with five participants, offering only ten matches.

On Friday, only one round took place, in which Ostrava won at Science City Jena thanks to an improved performance in the second half. The home team played a very even game with the Polish team WKK Wroclaw . In the end, the home advantage worked and HAKRO Merlins Crailsheim won by a difference of four points, which was important for the overall ranking in the tournament and thanks to this win, the home team secured silver medals. The last game of the day offered the famous game of cat and mouse, where Ostrava plays the cat and the role of the mouse remains for the team BK Lokomotiva Sered' .

On Saturday, a dramatic match took place between the German team Jena and the Polish team WKK Wroclaw . WKK builds a slight lead from the start, Jena constantly argues, but does not find the strength to turn the match in its favor.

Ostrava is delighted to win gold medals after wins over WKK and the home team.

On Sunday, WKK easily defeated Sered' and confirmed their third place in the tournament. The last match of the tournament offered a German derby between the home team and Jena. The home team clearly wanted to win from the beginning of the match and won it with a comfortable margin of twenty-nine points.
