

Academy NH Ostrava wins the U16 tournament

This year's CEYBL tournament started with the U16 category, hosted by the newly renovated hall in Ostrava. And the home team christened it more than successfully and deservedly won the tournament.

The cards determining the order are actually dealt already in Friday's program. First, the home team welcomed the Slovak team BSC Bratislava. At the first quarter immediately determined who was the master on the field, when Academy NH Ostrava built a twenty-point lead, which it maintained and slightly increased until the end of the game. BSC Bratislava also played a role in another game that affected the overall ranking in the medal places, their opponent was the Polish team Basket 4kids Zielona Góra . BSC again started the game poorly and lost the first quarter significantly. This affected the entire game and the Polish team won comfortably.

On Saturday we could watch the Bratislava derby between the teams BSC Bratislava and Dynamo Bratislava . The first half was relatively even, but in the third quarter BSC increased the pace and deservedly wins. The next match did not offer much beauty, we would have expected a result of 28:34 at halftime, but it was important for determining the fifth place in the tournament. It was a Polish duel between the teams Lublinianka KUL Basketball and AK Ożarów . Both teams look like nice, they have experience in basketball activities, but they are not yet consistent enough, as befits this category. In any case, the victory goes to Lublinianka KUL Basketball team. Saturday was closed by the match between the home team and Basket 4kids Zielona Góra , which was the imaginary final of the tournament. Ostrava left no one in doubt that they wanted to win, especially in the "run" Jakub Ptáček with 39 points. However, as we know the teams from Ostrava, it was primarily a team performance.

On Sunday, Lublinianka tried to surprise BSC, but they ultimately failed. Ostrava dealt with Dynamo in a calm atmosphere and 4kids gave no chance to AK Ożarów , who scored twenty-five points in the first quarter and it was basically decided.
