

MKS Basket Szczawno Zdrój wins the U13 tournament

The thirteenth tournament of the U13 category took place in the Czech city of Frýdek-Místek. The winner of the tournament was the Polish team MKS Basket Szczawno Zdrój.

In the opening match of the tournament, we have the opportunity to watch the duel between the home team Basketpoint Frýdek-Místek and the Czech team BA Young Diamonds . The home team had the match fully under control and won easily. The next match also had a relatively clear course. The Polish team MKS Basket Szczawno Zdrój defeats another Polish team KS Korona 1919 RadwanSport Kraków . The third match of the day between the Austrian team BBLZ - Reach the Top and the Slovak team ŠBK Galaxy Košice is tied. The whole match is very even, the difference in the score is always only a few points and the Slovak team manages the end better and wins by a difference of five points. And Košice is also in another even match of the day. This time they fight with the Czech team BA Young Diamonds and again successfully. This time by ten points.

And on Saturday, it is necessary to mention Košice again, who play another even match, this time with the home team. The Slovak team is in a very limited rotation at the tournament, their strength is decreasing and this was reflected in this match. Košice are in a slight lead for three quarters, but they can no longer handle the last quarter and the home team wins by seven points. The Slovak team's ruin then continued in the afternoon program, where they lose more significantly to Krakow. The day's program is closed by the home team's match against the Austrian team. Basketpoint enters the match better. Halfway through the match, the score is almost even. However, the second half of the match belongs to the home team, and with this win they laid the foundation for winning the silver medals.

On Sunday, Košice won the first quarter over the Polish team MKS Basket Szczawno Zdrój . However, that was all from their side and the Polish team can celebrate winning the gold medals after winning by almost twenty points. In the second match, the Austrian BBLZ played a more balanced match with the Czech team BA Young Diamonds , which they eventually managed to win by twelve points. The last match of the tournament between Basketpoint and Krakow ends with the same point difference. The home team rejoiced and thus confirmed the win of the silver medals. KS Korona 1919 RadwanSport Kraków takes bronze.
